Additional Notes on Early Swedes in Mobile, AL

Nils William Olsson

In connection with the article "Declarations and Naturalizations of Swedes in Mobile, AL 1840-1906," published in Swedish American Genealogist in Sept. 1986, pp. 107-119, it is now possible to add new material concerning some of these Swedes, thanks mainly to two volumes of the marriage records of Mobile County, AL 1813-1875, published by Clinton P. King and Meriem A. Barlow.<sup>1</sup> Though some of this material was incorporated in the original article, a closer scrutiny of these fine lists has unearthed new information concerning the marriages of some of these early Swedes. The list given below enumerates the Swedes about whom more information has been garnered by the number they held in the original article. The reference to the King and Barlow volumes is provided in the right hand column, where the numeral I refers to the marriage list 1813-1855 and the numeral II refers to the second volume 1856-1875. The page numbers follow the referenced works, thus providing the reader with a ready reference guide. The author expresses his deep appreciation to Mr. King and Ms. Barlow for permission to make use of this valuable material. Warm thanks also go to the Genealogical Publishing Company of Baltimore, MD for its kind permission to use the first volume, which was published by this firm.

The material cited above may be helpful in further identifying some of the early settlers in Mobile. Much of it should be used with caution, however, since many Swedes assumed common Anglo-Saxon names, which are difficult to trace. Without further evidence it therefore becomes a hazardous task to separate Swedes who adopted such surnames as Smith, Thompson and Williams, to name but a few, from Mobile residents who had an Anglo-Saxon origin.

<sup>2</sup>The bridegroom is probably Nils Petter Jonasson Lindström, a journeyman shoemaker from Stockholm who left Sweden for America 1859, at the age of 31. The bride is possibly Carolina Jonsson, also from Stockholm, 39 years old, who departed from Sweden at the same time as her husband-to-be. —Personregister till Statistiska Centralbyråns i Stockholm förteckningar över emigranter 1851-1860 (Index of emigrants 1851-1860 from the Collection of the Swedish Central Bureau of Statistics) (SCB).

<sup>4</sup>Behind the un-Swedish name of Rohnvick may be the name of Rohnqvist, which would be difficult to use in America. We know that members of the Rohnqvist family on the island of Gotland came to the U.S. as early as 1852, when a Swedish immigrant, Johannes Petersson from Gotland, writing from San Francisco 15 Jan. 1852, states that "the lads Höglund and Rohnqvist from Visby greet their friends and relatives from San Francisco." —Gottlands Låns Tidning, No.13, 26 March 1852, courtesy Dr. Erik Wikén.
